

Workshop Photos:

AsianBondsOnline (ABO) together with the Ministry of Finance of Viet Nam co-organized a workshop on the secondary corporate bond market development and bond pricing in Viet Nam on 27 September 2019, Ho Chi Minh City, Viet Nam. Over 100 participants from the public and private sectors attended the event.

Some of the resource persons who presented during the workshop.

The Opening Remarks was delivered by Phan Thi Thu Hien, director general of the Ministry of Finance of Viet Nam.

Welcome Remarks was given by Ho Quang Trung, director of ASEAN Secretariat.

Pham Thi Thanh Tam from the Ministry of Finance of Viet Nam shared current issues on corporate bond market development in Viet Nam.

Noritaka Akamatsu, an independent consultant and former senior advisor from the Asian Development Bank presented regional experience on corporate bond market development.

Ariya Tiranaprakij, senior executive vice president of Thai Bond Market Association presented market infrastructure and pricing for corporate bonds.

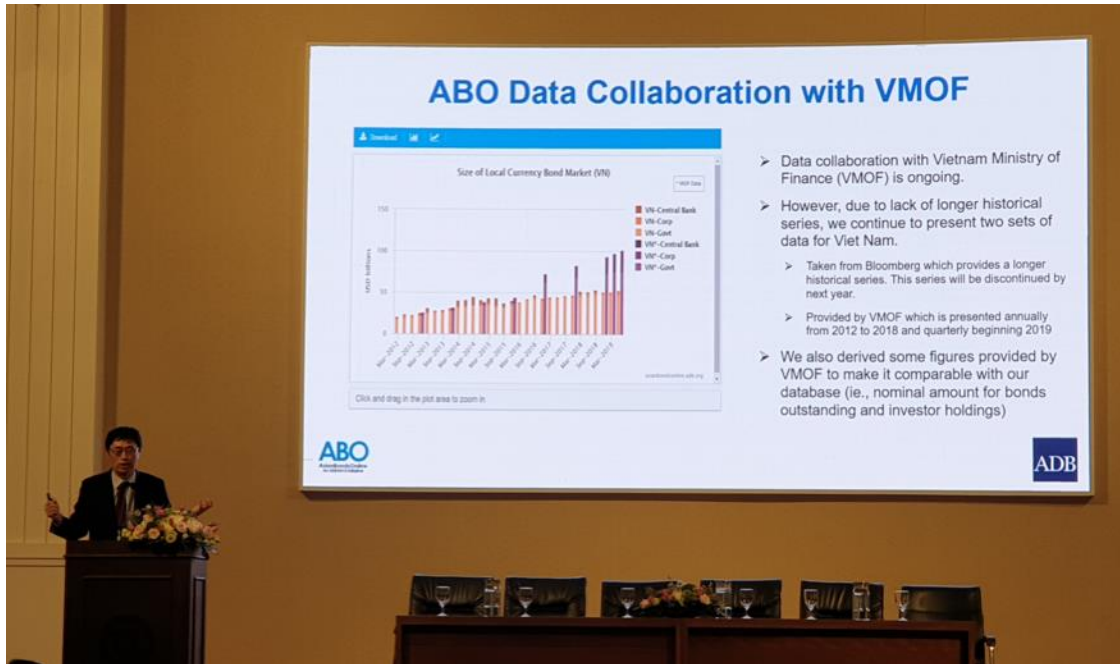

Nguyen Thi Kim Oanh, chairwoman of Vietnam Bond Market Association also made a presentation on market infrastructure and pricing of corporate bonds in Viet Nam.

Meor Amri Meor Ayob, chief executive officer of Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia discussed measures to increase liquidity of corporate bonds.

Kengo Mizuno, senior consultant of Nomura Research Institute presented trading market model for corporate bonds.

ADB's principal economist Donghyun Park presented an update on economic outlook in Asia, recent developments in emerging East Asia's local currency bond markets, and an update on AsianBondsOnline.

The workshop concluded with a panel discussion.